

CENTRAL MOLONEY, INC. ANNOUNCES TWO KEY PROMOTIONS

Pine Bluff, Ark. (May 10, 2017) – Central Moloney, Inc. (CMI) announces the recent promotions of Patrick Colclasure to Senior Vice President and Kent Gossage to Vice President of Sales.

Colclasure and Gossage have built track records of achievement in their previous roles with their extensive industry and customer expertise. “We could not be more thrilled with the progress, promotion and contribution of both of these team members. We look forward to seeing them excel in their new positions and furthering their influence in the growth of Central Moloney, Inc.” said R. R. (Bo) Siever, President and Chief Executive Officer.

Colclasure has held a range of management level positions at CMI over the past seventeen years. He has rapidly ascended to the level of Senior Vice President while primarily focusing on sales, marketing, engineering and transportation logistics at the Transformer Division.

Gossage brings significant experience to his new position as Vice President of Sales. In his new role, he is responsible for developing, monitoring and evaluating overall sales performance of the Transformer Division. He is responsible for managing the Division’s sales force, and will continue to directly handle the western region sales territory.

“Our company has promoted a culture of premier customer service for 68 years and we are proud that Patrick and Kent share that commitment,” said Chris Hart, Executive Vice President. “Please join us in congratulating Patrick and Kent, and continue to offer your support to the Central Moloney, Inc. team!”
