

CENTRAL MOLONEY, INC. PROMOTES PAM EDWARDS TO VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER OF COMPONENTS OPERATION

Pine Bluff, Ark. (August 5, 2016) – Central Moloney, Inc., a leading global manufacturer of distribution transformers and transformer components, announced today it has promoted Pam Edwards to Vice President and General Manager of its Components Operation. Edwards was most recently Vice President of Sales, where she oversaw the sales function of this operation.

“It has been a true joy witnessing Pam’s transformation over the past 31 years as a curious and wide-eyed accounting clerk to a confident leader. Pam has extensive experience in all areas of our Components Operation, and this promotion gives her the ultimate responsibility for “all things Components” including their engineering and sales functions,” said R. R. Siever, President and Chief Executive Officer.

“Our company has promoted a culture of premier customer service for 67 years, and we are proud that Pam shares that commitment,” said Chris Hart, Executive Vice President. “Please join us in congratulating Pam and continue to offer your support to the Central Moloney, Inc. Components team!”
